
United States

Almost all U.S. bilateral aid to Israel is in the form of military assistance, although in 2016, representatives of the U.S. and Israeli governments signed a new 10-year $2 million for the Israel-U.S. Binational Research & Development Foundation.

For FY2019, the Trump Administration is requesting $3.3 billion in Foreign Assistance. This report provides an overview of U.S. foreign assistance to Israel. $2 million for the Israel-U.S. Binational Research & Development Foundation.

The Trump Administration is requesting $3.3 billion in Foreign Assistance to mark the first year of the new MOU. Review of the Federal Aviation Administration.

The U.S. and Israeli governments signed a new 10-year $2 million for the Israel-U.S. Binational Research & Development Foundation. For FY2019, the Trump Administration is requesting $3.3 billion in Foreign Assistance to mark the first year of the new MOU.

Review of the Federal Aviation Administration.

The U.S. and Israeli governments signed a new 10-year $2 million for the Israel-U.S. Binational Research & Development Foundation. For FY2019, the Trump Administration is requesting $3.3 billion in Foreign Assistance to mark the first year of the new MOU.

Review of the Federal Aviation Administration.

The U.S. and Israeli governments signed a new 10-year $2 million for the Israel-U.S. Binational Research & Development Foundation. For FY2019, the Trump Administration is requesting $3.3 billion in Foreign Assistance to mark the first year of the new MOU.